HELENA, MONTANA.

By J. E. W. Clarke.
"Good sense should be the test of all rules, both ancient and modern; whatever is incompatible with good sense is false."

The Women's Mite Missionary Society held their regular monthly meeting on the 10th and furnished a program for the regular evening service. The program was not up to the standard usually given the public on such occasions. Missionary programs should endeavor to inculcate a spirit for missions, produce missionary facts, give information of missionary workers and their many sacrifices for this greatest of God's work. The field of Missions in the A. M. E. Church is a vast workshop stored with valuable information. Dig it up and let the people know it.

A telegram from Al Marshall gives the information that he has sailed from some port in America for some place "over there."

Beginning about the 15th of July, Rev. Martin will start a series of meetings, assisted by Miss Ida Myller of Indianapolis, Ind.

Nothing doing on June brides. But July will be welcomed in by a wedding uniting two of our popular young people. He's going to the war. Will let you in on the secret at another time. The entertainment and dinner given by the Senior Choir on the 19th was quite a success. The drill by the little ones was equal to any we have seen. Mrs. Lowrey has earned a well merited reputation in training the young people and their splendid performance gives evidence of her tact and patience in dealing with them.

Lee's orchestra was called to Winston on the 23d to play for a dance given in honor of several Winstonians who have been called into service.

Unity Lodge, A. F. and A. M., installed their officers on the evening of the 19th. On the 23d Rev. Martin preached their annual sermon.

Lawrence Howard was the real champion of the twelfth annual track meet of the grade departments of the public school held on the campus of the high school during the closing week of the schools. Howard took first prizes in the following unlimited events, three contesting: 100-yard dash, 220-yard dash, javelin throw, shot put, discus throw, and running broad jump. In the Junior events his brother, Norman, bagged two second prizes: 100-yard dash and 220-yard dash. The colored boy, like his ancestors, fought nobly.

In a letter from Mrs. F. Williams, formerly Mrs. Warfield, written June 5th, gave information of the serious illness of Rev. J. P. Watson, at one time pastor of St. James A. M. E. Church. The letter intimated there was hardly a chance of his recovery. The Busy Bee Club met with Mrs. Callie Mathews last week.

The political pot begins to boil. Senators are to be elected. Representatives will be looking for your vote. We have enemies in the camp at Washington. Shall we return them? Get together. Do it now.

Miss Carlotta Ford is in Butte for a short stay.
William (Bill) Mason is getting up a dam party for the 4th. The fishes in the lake have been wired of the coming event which casts its shadow before it.

HELENA, MONTANA.

Soules, M. Ex.; George M. Lee, Jr., K. of R. & S.; and A. Hampton, trustee for 18 months. Invitations are out announcing the marriage of Mr. George Robinette to Miss Olga York, July 8th. Any information leading to Julia Ann Coates will be appreciated by me. Last heard of at Kansas City, Mo. Mrs. Lucy Allen, 309 Cutler street, Helena, Mont., her sister. The Pride of Montana, No. 4, will install officers July 1st, J. H. Hilliard, P. G. & D. S. C., installing officer. Mr. Charles St. Clair of Clarency was in the city the 18th. Mr. John Gaine, a railway mail clerk of Chicago, but now on extra duty, running from Butte to Salt Lake City, Utah, will return home July 1st, after being absent two months. Mrs. Lee A. Hankins is home again after spending some months in Butte. The entertainment given by the ladies of the St. James A. M. E. Church to raise funds to buy a carpet for the church was a success. Rev. C. N. Douglass, presiding elder and near bishop of the Puget Sound Conference, drove overland to this city a few days ago in his buggy and was joined by Rev. Geo. F. Martin at Garrison, who finished the trip with him. Rev. Huff delivered an excellent sermon at Ebenezer Baptist Church the 20th. Receipts of the Rally are still increasing. $268.80 to date.
